M * A * S * H

Book by Richard Hooker September/October
Adapted by Tim Kelly 2012

M*A*S*H stands for Mobile Army Surgical Hospital, and joining it are two unpredictable madcaps, Hawkeye and Duke, two of the best chest surgeons in South Korea. They decide to wage a campaign to help a young Korean go to a good school in the United States. Comic adventures pyramid right before your eyes. If you liked the movie, you'll love the play!

Children's Show

By TBD December 2012

Each year, PCT brings a musical production just for kids and performed by kids. We have also added a one-act production written, directed and performed by talented students. This year is no exception. We are currently working to gain the rights to a particular show, so we cannot announce the name of the production. Suffice to say, we just might let our hair down or go under the sea.

A Case of Libel

By Henry Denker February 2013

A Case of Libel is based on attorney Louis Nizer's account of the famous legal battle between two friends whose friendship turned venomous. One is a celebrated war correspondent; the other, a widely syndicated newspaper columnist who has methodically and systematically attacked the correspondent in the press. This drama is full of tension, and a gives close look at how "justice" works.

Shakespeare Comes to Calamity Creek

Book by Tim Kelly May 2013

Music and lyrics by Bill Francoeur
Ah, Shakespeare in the... Old West?
A hilarious melodrama that tells the story of a conceited actor who comes to a small mining town hoping to bring culture to the locals. Come see how it turns out for the vagabond players and the western mining town locals!
